

Kelly Niebergall

5300 Commerce Court West, 199 Bay Street, Toronto, Canada, M5L 1B9
Direct: +1 416 869 5505 kniebergall@stikeman.com

Kelly Niebergall is counsel in the Knowledge Management Group, practising corporate and commercial law with an emphasis on financing and insolvency. She has acted for domestic and foreign financial institutions, as well as venture capital funds and corporate borrowers, in connection with a wide range of types of financing including cross-border finance, acquisition finance, asset based lending, project finance and equipment finance. She has also acted for receivers and debtors in commercial insolvencies and insolvency-related merger and acquisition transactions. She has a dual practice, representing clients on transactional mandates as well as developing and maintaining documentary precedents and other practice resources and current awareness materials, and furthering other knowledge management endeavours within the Banking & Lending Group.

Publications

- “Secured Lending: Trends and regulatory climate”, Lexology Navigator, 2017.
- “Canada” chapter, Getting the Deal Through: Acquisition Finance, 2014, (co-author).

Legal Posts

The following posts are available on Stikeman.com:

- Finality of Payments and Defending against the Unknown: Mitigating the Federal Court of Appeal’s Decision in TD v. Canada
- Royalty Holders are Invested in the Land: Court in Dianor Resources concludes royalties are an interest in land not to be vested out
- The Sun Shines for Lenders - Solar Power in the Court of Appeal
- Royalties are an Interest in Land \(But can they be vested out? Stay tuned.\)
- Is Interest in Solar Power Over-Heated?
- A little more notice please! Amendments to Ontario PPSA debtor location rules effective December 31 may require additional registrations
- Amendments to Ontario PPSA debtor location rules take effect December 31, 2015

Speaking Engagements

- “Competitive Advantage: Current Trends in Secured Loan Transactions”, Ontario Bar Association’s Institute 2017 Business Law program, Toronto, ON, February 17, 2017.

Professional Activities

Kelly is a member of the Law Society of Ontario.

Education

Queen's University (LL.B. 1999)

University of Western Ontario (Honours B.A. 1996)

Bar Admission

Ontario, 2001